Club Cards:

I have a LOT of club cards that have not been distributed yet. If you will need yours before the next meeting, please email me to make arrangements to pick yours up sometime before we head out for Stowe's Appreciation Days on Sunday morning. If you are not in a rush and won't make the meeting next week, you can send me a SASE and I'd be happy to throw it in the mail for you. I must have your application on file to mail it though.

Meeting:

Just another reminder: the meeting has been moved to Thursday next week. Same time and place, but no $6 dinner at the Elks this month. Please be sure to sign the guest book upon arriving at the Elks (it's either in the foyer or in the bar) and list one of the following as your member ELK: Joe Lemesevski, Mickey D., John Rosina or Ed Rosina. I am going to really try to do a better job of directing traffic to the meeting place from now on.

Belleayre Discounts:

In addition to the skier appreciation days already announced, and the $10 discount offered any day of the year with a valid ski club card, Belleayre has decided to do $20 Wednesdays for the entire month of January! Check out their website for more details: <http://www.belleayre.com/> In addition, I got a hot tip from a concerned skier that there is a good deal on Ebay for discount lift tix to Belleayre that he believes is 100% legit. The EBay search number is 170423905437. Please let us know if you use it and how it works out for you.

Skier Appreciate Days:

Gore Mountain and JFBB have joined Mt. Snow, Okemo, Stowe, Plattekill and Whiteface in adding Skier Appreciation Days to their calendars, just for club/council members. Visit <http://www.newjerseyskicouncil.org/DiscountsMain.html> for details and visit often as new discounts are updated on a regular basis. These skier appreciation days are an awesome way to get a multi-day trip going for less than you'd ever dream of spending on a full blown ski vacation. And let us know if you are interested in carpooling. I'd be happy to start a list of contacts for last minute trips and the like.

Other Club Card Discounts:

- ❖ Blue Mountain, PA - $10 off adult lift tickets on Thursdays
- ❖ Bear Creek, PA - Ski or ride on Wednesday for $15. ($12 for those under 21)
